TO OUR READERS.

This is the last number of the Incapun-BENT DEMOCRAT. Personally, we never gard to supply and demand, on which the above. I have preserved the very works contemplated a permanent connection with fabric of protection is raised, could have used by Mr. Clay, as he told them to me. the press, and the Democrat itself was in- induced the whig min rity to attempt the In the same conversation be further stended at the beginning for the recent Presidential canvass. Its object was as far as sidential canvass. Its object was as far as about one hundred thousand in the Union; of the period, for publication; and the the property of the period, for publication; and the the property of the period, for publication; and the the property of the period, for publication; and the the property of the period, for publication; and the the property of the period, for publication; and the the property of the period, for publication; and the the property of the period, for publication; and the the property of the period, for publication; and the the period, for publication; and the the period, for publication; and the period, for publication is period to in political economy, and to spread before more customers in the democratic party only by considerations connected with his They seem to lock on Henry Clay as the community reliable information on such than among the whigs. The latter party situation in the South Carolina Radroad subjects as we deemed of most importance are determined since the election to cut off Company. to their interests. As the conductor of a course of trade. They will not bay of public journal, it has been our aim ever to them, nor sell to them; they will establish avoid the infliction of injury on the feel- among themselves, and keep it to themings of individuals. We have endeavor selves-a percannal fount of blessings, and ed to make war on principles when we of wealth. The effect of this will be to believed them wrong, without regard to have no time to mix politics with trade, inthe three of this date we have no time to mix politics with trade, into the ranks of the majority, who, it is uncharge of this duty, we have ever given derstood, will sell to all men without first pain, "the fault, dear Brutus, is not in our | questioning them as to their politics, and | paratory to her last trip up Sail river in selves, but in our stars. "

ers, we may be allowed to congratulate b'essings of its political protective system them on the happy termination of the great and party home market will be centered conflict in which we have been engaged; among an intelligent and blessed few, while and especially the triumph of the great their adversaries will be left, with an unli- the boat, as it presumed many of the pasprinciples of Free Trade, which are des- mited market of purchase and sale, to all tined to as natural and triumphant an as- lence, and famine of Free Trade. Auscendancy over the wretched heresies of picious truit of whig logic! The man who in the navigation of this stream, and is conprotection, as the Copernican system rose invented the word "protection," to doing sequently familiar, both with its mountersuperior to the bigotry and delusions of an nate the extent of the burdens imposed on age of superstition. A great majority of the slaveholding States, almost the whole South, and the entire cotton raising region of political upon Castam-house duties-till have condemned Henry Clay and the restrictive system; thus clearly demonstrating the capability of the people to understand their own true interests, and to resist the strongest array of partisan zeal fraud, falsehood, misrepresentation, so phistry and deception.

We have disposed of the press of the Democrat to Messrs. F. C. Jones and J. Durdin, who have removed it to Carroll not—at least a regard for social order, in band, at Ashland. The flar of "domeston, and intend publishing a paper to be which our opponents are, or claim to be, its cotton will fly at half-mast—Union best them now, their party is disbanded called the Mississippi Democrat. Of the abilities of Mr. Jones as an editor, many of our readers can bear testimony from the columns of the Yazoo Democrat. We that effect. The proscription of men for carpeted with Lancors well in 1810 and 1811. They will end our readers can bear testimony from the columns of the Yazoo Democrat. We that effect. The proscription of men for carpeted with Lancors well in 1810 and 1811. They will end our opposite that effect. The proscription of men for carpeted with Lancors well in 1810 and 1811. They will end our opposite that effect. The proscription of men for carpeted with Lancors well in 1810 and they was no question! They will end our opposite that effect. The proscription of men for carpeted with Lancors well in 1810 and they are not carpeted with Lancors well be provided we have no question! They will as along the carpeted with Lancors well be provided we have no question! They will as along the carpeted with the columns of past Republics, is not merely hateful for its oneon. It is the process of the Republic of the columns of the Republic of the carpeted with Lancors well be provided we have no question! They will republish the transactions of past Republish the mind acquainted with the transactions of past Republic of the carpeted with Lancors well be provided we have no question! They will republish the mind acquainted with the transactions of past Republish the carpeted with Lancors well be provided we have no question! They will republish the mind acquainted with the transactions of past Republish the carpeted with Lancors and called the Mississippi Democrat. Of the are certain the patrons of the Mississippi Democrat, will find it an able and inter- tions, and to uproof social order, as this United States Bunk, who will be provided rit of Agrarianism and number of the distinguishment philanthropist, who Milton's Paradise Lost:

It is a common saying with the whigs, that they possess all the talent. We will mention a few in the democratic ranks, tem of security is one of mutual dependence, very mouraful city; whose names are not unknown to fame. daily felt. The men who are called upon The democratic party can beast such men to defend property against war, to aid the as George Bancroft, Wm. C. Bryant, law in upholding its rights, in peace, t O. A. Brownson, Washington Irving, A. protect it against the elements, are not al-H. Everett, J. Fenimore Cooper, J. K. ways me possessors of property teach those who are interested in property teach. When my mule jogg'd on his way, Paulding, Wm. G. Simms, G. C. Ver-planck, Fitzgreen Halleck, Joseph C. der, set them the example and give them The meal bags o'er. Neal and in fact nine tenths of the dis. the provocation for proscription? tinguised literary men of the country .-Any array that whiggery can produce will be infinitely inferior to that above, yet From a Correspondent of the Rich. Enq. I was born in old Virgin', once on a time, their continued cry is: "we have all the South Carolina's Debt of Gratitude to the I was born in Ohi Virgia', talent, and all the respectability." This has always, in all countries, been a maxin with that brainless class, who aspire to be privileged.

THE WHIGS AFTER ELECTION.

sue of the conflict on their side by a gene- Messrs. Clay and Clayton, in relation to nic and revulsion.

With hardly an exception, the whole contempt, whig press of this State have joined in their eudeavor to weaken confidence, im- Clay, in relation to the compromise, I feel pair credit, and unsettle values. They myself warranted in stating a fact or two. have done this, not from motives of inte- which will enable the public to apprecirest, for they can hardly hope to resp ad- ate his views and motives. revenge. They would cause that depress nance of Nullification, Mr. McDuffie subsion in prices, inflict those wide disasters mitted his proposition for a reduction of in business of which they speak, because duties to the revenue standard .-- This in truth, the sound stable interests of the propositon comtemplated fifteen years-at ed to follow this dirge for departed hopes, country have been their greatest enemies. the termination of which, the duties were has, in a measure, subsided, the bell will They would avenge themselves against to be finally adjusted on the scale subset be struck five times, for 1824, 28, 32, 36, the great producing interests of the State, quently adopted by the Compromise Bill. and '14, and the boat will move from the sour?"-Not because a more question of arrayed against them.

hibits, on the part of those who claimed to this latter bill. have no higher desire than to benefit the This proposition was submitted by means for esta lishing a permanent set- rejected by the people, and James K. Polk general interests of the country, is howev- General Hayne to Mr. Clay, and after a thement, as this will positively be the who has done none, has been preferred; er exceeded by the course of the same long and carnest consultation, Mr. Clay Coon's last trip. Every facility for en- Not on account of that which our oppo men in regard to laborers at wages. The emphatically declared, that "he would see graving bank notes should be secured, as nexts make so much account of, that the New York Tribune, the Troy Whig, and the Union dissolved in blood before he a "Regulator of the Currency" will be im- "Spails" are transferred to hostile hands the Buffalo Commercial Advertiser, three would rote for it." whig papers at extreme points of the State, This was before the ordinance of nulli- paper will be the only circulating medihave recommended the discharge of demo- fication, and was probably intended (a um." Also, a pientifal supply of steeltraps whom we claim and acknowledge no symcratic workmen by whig employers, and characteristic bravado) to force South and geurdshells should be put on board .-- pathy: Not because our party is defeated in this they have been joined by a large Carolina from her position. Failing, how Also, a lew spinning jenneys and looms, and the antegonist party is detected, majority of their party associates. In ever, in this, at the next session he agreed as the water power at the Hollow is excel- none of these causes do we feel that dedeed, the pretended revulsion of business, to take the reduction, running through the lent, and the "operatives" will be "pro- pression of spirit which the Psalmist, inwhich they are endeavoring to prove has term of only nine years—and for reasons, tected" by a wall against "pauper labor" spired by Gud himself, so touchingly yet

WEDNESDAY : 11: :::: DEC. 11, 1844. undertake this work of prescription; a pro- deserves no credit whatever for the course scription extended beyond laborers, and he indepted on that occasion. Such I control value of political economy, these notions in re- his death, detailed to me the circulasta: es will buy with a single eye to a good bar- 1845. She is officered as follows: Before taking a final leave of our read- gain. Thus gradually the limits of the whig party will be narrowed, and all the the miseries, the desolation, war, postilabor, was a fool to the author of this pro- familiarity with salt water operations, will be precisely of the same opinion: ject. The word itself should have been make the "desert and solitade" of the reserved till the era of this new piling up stream both pleasant and grecable. the full workings of the system were seen mulgation of the edict of non-intercourse before been navigates. She will pass all with a political majority.

Seriously, this proposition of the minority to term the majority out of the social of in 1810; and it is not improvable that absurd. If shame will not prevent those of that stream. scription-if the fear of retaliation will has already been cut, by the Captain's own "On the other hand, it is like memoria as much interested as we, should have Jack down. The entires (not log) will be for years to come, and their legions soutimputed to us, could not, if truly charged, there, except the effects of the least, and exacts, and transcent and Marison! Never tend so directly to subvert our constitu-

But independent of this, the whole were ways the possessors of property. Will My name was Heary Clay [Albany Atlas.

Great Pacificator!

"I perceive from the Enquirer of Tuesday last, that the Richmond Whig is endeavoring to impress on the public mind the belief, that Mr. Clay made a voluntary concession to the South, in his advocacy of the Compromise bill, with the single The democrats have celebrated their view of preserving the Union. Not havvictory by the discharge of cannon, by bon- ing seen the article in the 'Whig,' I do not fires illuminations and general congratula-know whether the Editors have ventured I made a President tions. Their opponents celebrate the ist to endorse the miserabl buffornery of ral discharge of workmen, (the opposite the same subject. Their statements have The Bank, with all its host, lest I die, of a feu de joie,) and by industrious and been answered on the floor of the Senate; concerted to east gloom and darkness over and the wretched trash which they have every business interest, and to produce pa- ventured to publish in the newspapers, will excite no other emotion than that of

vantages four years hence, from a panic | You will remember that during the sesso early commenced, but from a feeling of sion of Congress, previous to the ordi. No prospects in the gloom and of the Union which they feel has been It was more advantageous to the minu- wharf. An expeditious trip may be ex- men has been decided adversely to our exfacturers, by at least six years, than the pected. The hypocrisy which such an effort ex- concessions subsequently agreed on in It is desirable that passengers should light! Not because Henry Clay, a man already taken place, four months in ad- as he himself admitted in his speech, that without, vance of President Polk's inauguration, the domestic manufacturers would not reand more than a year before the session of quire protection beyond that period. His as happen, from any cause, to be in "a every Free Government which ever exist- mocratic men and measures, and (as you intended to embrace all classes of busi- know to have been the epinion of the laness. Nothing but those particular views mented Hayne, who, a few months before

From the Fredericksburg Recorder. FOR SALT RIVER.

THE STEAMER COON, CAPTAIN CLAY,

HENRY CLAY, Captain, Thos. Ewing, Pilot. WM. C. RIVE, Steward. John Bell, Bellman.

No bands will be employed to manage

The Captain has spent most of his life

It is expected, as the wind and tale are in the discharge of laborers, and the pro- the river considerably higher than it has her former landings, together with the and unavailing. Let us not, it avacrious tion" from resorting to this unworthy pro- in sable. The flag staff, for the occasion, the United State.

when the Captain will sing the following

CLAY'S LAMERY-Air, Robert Kill. My name was Henry Clay, when of yore, when of yore, My name was Henry Clay, when of yore,

The meal bags o'er. I was born in Old Virgin', once on a time, once on a time, Where I wish I was agin, But the coms-they can't get in, And wee is mine.

I've often changed my front, as you know, as you know, I've often changed my front, as you know, I've often changed my front, And by dint of "management," Of Johnny Q.

lest I die. The Bank with all its host, lest I die, The Bank with all its host, To save me did its most, But it gave up the ghost, And so must I.

I'm now a "gone old coon"-no reliefno relief, I'm now a "gone old coon"--no relief; I'm now a "gone old coon," To avert my awful doom,

But that ar' beef! After the flood of tears which is expect- viliza in!

over the dead body of the 'Coon—the general discharge of democratic laborers. Signed James G. Birney, and to a circumstances too controlling for him to benefit of the meaning L'y also mediate.

President he A. B. or C. or whether his to J. P. Garland, Esq., Sugmaw, and the controlling for him to be a circumstance of the place.

Our Tickets may be had at the Captain's flee, ur at any of the Clay club rooms.

THE GROANS OF THE DEING. We copy several extensis from whig pa-

ers this week, to show the spirit in which standing astride of the Republic, and holdwould be difficult to tell which, they or the lady's f-u."

It is a maxim decilly engraven on the

"If J. K. Path provails over Henry Clay, remnant will continue to struggle for its both favorable, that the Coon will ascend principles—the only principles which can and business circle, is as wicked as it is she will one but in the very founded board other. We must conquer now! or coase to hope to resistance essaulty the elements of Years, in a matter's age, is of the least MARK THAT!! Flut is 65 miles who have so declaimed in favor of "protoc- The Coon will be gorgeously described disorder, ruin and sourchy which meaner it is the inexpacity to judge Detroit, 30 miles by railroad and an esting paper, and wish our friends in their contexts and wish our friends in their property safely only by the tenure of public opinion; it is certainly not for them with "sheep's head and pluck," and "boan meath their rains! THIS IS THE FATE to the context of As the beat leaves the wheef, "Old Dan destined, the incevitable fale! But public Funker" will be performed by the band, vistue can postpone the cay of the sad

> " To postpone U-to preserve as long as possible the blessings we have, depail ed of modern proples?

> > From the Richmond Whig.

DEFEAT OF MR. CLAY, AND LIBETT N interests: democracy on morality and mind. or Mr. Pork!-This result, an contrary The whig respects men with their possesto all human expectation, and so revolting sions; democracy cherishes maked humanto all sense of propriety, has clothed this ity. The whig idolizes e-tablished abucommunity in mourning. The barge is see, and plends prescription: democracy is not were on the het or the left arm-it is the party of hope and reform. The whig not exhibited to vain forms. It is told in kindles with zeal in the defence of sepathe countenances of the people; in the rate interests: democracy demands equal gloom which averspreads nearly every rights. The whig claims the privilege of countenance which is lighted up by intel- his sovereign: democracy asserts the soligence! Our Rome mourns as old Rome verticaty of the people. The whig redid, when the battle of Canee was last! geralliberty as fortunate privilege, or as a The women are in tears as for a great care coveranted entranchistement; democracy lamity, as if Hannibal was at the gates; holds micrty as a natural and inclienable and the very children look desolate and

When the cars on Saturday arrived and announced the result of the New York vote, a stern and funeral silence, broken only here and there in the throng, by a boy or an excited partizan, was observed by the immense multitude. The whigs felt that the country had been cheated and deladed by the most infamous system of fraud and misrepresentation into self-betrayal, and the Democrats present were whig, resting government on wealth, lays ate they had elected, and the cause which owed all its success to as extended and unblushing and persevering a scheme of tablishes the supremacy of the people, and

From the same.

"WHY ART THOU CAST DOWN, O MY peciations, our hope, our convictions of provide themselves with the requisite who has done his country service, has been mediately established in Com Hollow, and No-the wretch who, at such a moment, so simply describes! Were it an ordinary the Congress elected with him, is intended tale now, endorsed by Mr. Clayton, like state of retiracy," Coon Hollow offers unparalelled attractions; as Loco Focoism sed to, we should not regard the result will forego the agitation of the Slavery over the dead body of the 'Coon-the ge- | yield. The laste was too momentous, the momentous consequence. Whether the Pare - Two debars a cay and reast offers, shore through whose egency the crat of that place. It must have required all the logic of the withstand. He was inserting forces into both both both bearing to include the whig party to the support of the Compromise; and he bear in payment at their depression on the day, or that, is rate attenue of the support will be takeen in payment at their deprereally and practically of small consequence. Nor is it so indispensable, how- from their chief, and from the la ever expedient for the persuitary interests. We pronounce the whole do of the People, that the sound Whig docof the People, and the State of this day, an entire fabrication, transel Policy for which the Whigs contend, unworthy of the least credit in should be insteadly afforced! This course or it comes out as "From the Alighment Democratic Chichigan & Chichigan & Democratic Chichigan & Chich by always produces i read and ment enough (Michigan) Democrat, October 21.1 can, the refere, wait a while for a wise go- per above named, but the Democ vernmental policy, we hout the fear of fa- lished it from an ANONYMOUS II mine Letore the eyes of the people!

> ing it up in his hands, and now that he lanchedy a depression at the result of the Flint or Saginaw county. and his detestable policy are stricken down. Late great struggle! We answer frankly The whole document is an una they predict the most awful calamities. It and promptly it is at the popular spirit attempt at track and imposition; by which the context has revealed; it is be poor bunglers who got it up, have not cause a majority, or a claimed majority, palmed upon the people a probate Will positively start as above, on the 4th Millerites, are now the crazicst. They of the American people have manifested We unhesitatingly brand it as a light of the man who from Laringian to the man who are circulating the most stopid lies about so irreconcilable a latted to the man who from beginning to end, got up and The proprietors respectfully annuance the fall of prices in stocks, produce, and has been deserved in mem, next to their friends that the above named boat property. We have no doubt many or services it is because from property. We have no doubt many or services it is because from property. We have no doubt many or services it is because from property. We have no doubt many or services it is because from property. The proprietors respectfully announce the fall of prices in stocks, produce, and has best deserved of them, next to Washthem believe these things, for most of them been voted against, not for his opinions— rators well knew that just or up are more stilly than corrupt, just such nice not for his principles—but because he was would be on Luke Eric, or about y ung men as might be "trained with my Henry Clay, the first in service, the first ment reaching Detroit; while ton in renown! It is because our countrymen, the election occurs in Ohio and Pen in their verifiet, have clearly and unequi- vania, and on Tuesday next in that vocally exhibited that base and unworthy The fraud then, cannot be fully eas hearts of all true Americans, "Never envy of excellence-that disposition to until the elections are passed." despair of the Republic,"—and the mis- pull down what is better than themselves, but denounce it, and warn our fo sengers will be naxious to "work their ereant who despoirs of it is unlit to possess and to put up what is inferior—the spirit agrinst giving the report the leader the privileges of a freeman. The most of that A honoran who voted to banish Aris- or countenance. We must treat in tides because he was not only called but forgery, as it undoubtedly is, Leter was the just-which has been the destruc- man who loves his country, and is a fintion of all Republics! Henry Clay has of liberty, go up to the polls and express ings and soundings; while the Priot's long. II : and the aristocrats of Encope seem to been defeated, Nor Lecause he was not his reproduction at this attempt to inc worthy to lead his countrymen, for no man upon an honest people by voting i even pretends that he has an equal-but James G. Birney, "the honest man" because he was Henry Clay, and the first in service to his country, as the first in a elebrity which extends to every climate

This is the point of view which will resent itself to the informed mind, in- dated Oct. 21. This poor apology brighed by the past experience of the lie has dengged its slow length along world as the most important and the most TEN DAYS!! An Extra is ten do stal. The enjoyment of power for four coming from Michigan to Roch and to not weeky: It is the hatred of pre- mail-three days is ample time to be considerat mean; it is the preference for the news to this place -Albany Argucongenial littleness and ignobility: It is the spirit to pull down instead of the spirit of clasuiting superior merit, which to to the four larger of the Republican who solution, which he commenced was wishen for liberty to universal mankind-at all in the popular and vulgar envy of il- had been deteated, and himself and histrions morit which has rejected Henry host whelmed in the sulphurous pool of le Clay, and which refused a statue to the parus. The orator did not like to pr compare Caro. The events are at the distany more of the original, so dropping tance of 2000 years apart, but they read quotation, he goes on in plain prose, se ved rl which life were a weary cur-e, and precisely the same moral, tell the same ing into his speech, as if original, the life to perpensate them to those who follow us, is the highest merely earthly daties. We own it to correctives, our children, our country, all mankind, and to God himself, who was the great at and best deserving, and has vouchsofed to make us the most favor. Mr. Polk has been elected because to elect him mortified no man's self love!

WILIGGISM AND DEMOCRACY.

The whig rests for support on material right. The whig builds his strong government on forcet democracy trusts in the diffusion of intelligence, and the power of opinion. The whig fulfils his contracts, and knows no obligation to do more: received, and estimated as to the rest. democra y claims kindred with every suf. It is believed to be nearly correct:ferer, and, as each generation takes up its line of march for eternity, it cheerfully provides for the infirm. The whig makes cammon cause with his clan; democracy the foundation of a moneyed pristoeracy; dem eracy, resting government on the intelligence and morality of the masses, esopens the way to the principality of virtue. [Bancroft.

FORGERY AND FRAUD EXPOSED! To the Liberty Party of Monroe County: A document has just appeared, said to be published originally in "the Flint, Michigan Democrat, Oct. 21," containing, besides other sundry affidavits, a letter purporting to be written by James G. Birney; in which, among other passages, are the following:

"To morrow I start for the East, and shall not return until after the election .-My journey is indispensable, else a Duellet and a Gamble will soon fill the seat of a Washington, a Jefferson, and a Jackson."

"The democracy of the county must be well gratified that I am rendering them MORE EFFECTUAL SERVICE by advocating Abelition principles, than if I were OPENLY A DEMOCRAT."

to farnish a pretence to employers, and prepare the way for the great whig salute. The truth is, Mr. Clay saw that he must will be entirely excluded, and a political either way, or any way as of lasting and question in our recent correspondence to farnish a pretence to employers, and his conduct, is altogether different.

paralelled attractions; as Loco Foccism sed to, we should not regard the result will forego the agitation of the Slav prepare the way for the great whig salute.

Signed James G. Birney, and si

BILL, headed Genesie County De Is it then asked why we do feel so me- Extra; which handbill probably new

SAMUEL D. PORTER

G. W. PRATT. Rochester, Oct. 31, 1844. N. B .- Observe this Fliat handbi

LINDLEY M. MOORE

AN APT QUOTATION.

The arch-angel of whiggery, Du Webster, at a late rall, of his routel in discomfited partisans at Fanuell Hall, Boston, made a speech full of dogged following quotation from the first load

"What though the field be lost All is not lost, the unconquerable will

This is part of Satan's speech after rebellion against the m jesty of Hear

"And study of revenge immertal la And courage never to submit or yie says the Devil.

"The courage to resist, the firmp pose, the devoted adherence to our pra ples," says Black Din.

Now, we call this plagiarism. Was cellent judgment, the god-like man pared the condition of the fallen when that of the Satanic crew. With equ excellent taste, he likened himself to Devil, and adopted the speech which it ton had prepared for him. But he sh have given the Devil his due, and conti ed the quotations. Would not an at lie for violation of copyright? We'll some printer or lawyer would advise a [N. Y. Eve. Post

PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION. The following table contains the elec-

ral, and popular vote as far as it has be

		CTOR	MA20	MAJORITIES
	Pol	k. Cla	y. Polk.	Clay
Maine,	9		10,000)
N. Hampshire	c, 6		9,240)
Vermont,		6		8,0
Massachusett	S.	12		14,5
Rhode Island		4		2,4
Connecticutt,		6		3,0
New York,	33		6,000)
New Jersey,		7		5
Pennsylvania	, 26		6,333
Delaware,	7.	3		0
Maryland,		8		3,3
Virginia,	17		7,000)
N. Carolna,		11		3,30
S. Carolina,	9		40,000	Ė,
Georgia,	10		2,700
Alabama,	9		13,000
Mississippi,	6		6,000
Louisiana,	6		1.000
Arkansas,	- 3		4,000	100
Tennessee,		13	1.51	11
Kentucky,		12		9,26
Ohio,		23		6,00
Indians,	12		2,474
Illinois,	- 9		12,000
Missouri,	7		10,000
Michigan,	5		5,000
			136,746	50.00
	170	105	50,000	400
	105		50,992
	OF		85,754
	65		50,103

C. WILLIAMS, Merchant Tailor, CANTON, MI SPRIFFI.